

Media Participation and Protocol

Media are welcome to observe the 2025 annual and special meeting of shareholders via live webcast online:

<https://meetings.lumiconnect.com/400-347-978-606>

For media wishing to attend in person, advance registration is required. Please notify RBC Media Relations of your interest in attending and provide your contact information, including the publication or outlet you represent.

Registration will be available until April 8, 2025, and attendance will be limited to one journalist per outlet.

Please be prepared to show your credentials at the Media Registration desk upon your arrival. Entry will not be permitted for those who have not registered.

All registered attendees are subject to the rules of conduct of the 2025 annual and special meeting of common shareholders. As noted in the rules of conduct, the use of cameras, mobile phones, smartwatches or any recording devices during the meeting is strictly prohibited. Anyone attempting to take photos, film or record the proceedings will be asked to leave.